Chan Brothers Travel Introduces Campervan Convoy Your Hotel and Restaurant on Wheels

Here to revolutionise your road trips for good, Chan Brothers Travel has introduced Campervan Convoys to its repertoire of Free & Easy+ holidays, and is possibly the first travel agency in Singapore to do so. Combining the ease of a self-drive with your hotel and restaurant on wheels, campervans have become the ultimate accommodation of choice for freedom on a driving holiday.

Chan Brothers Travel inaugural Campervan Convoy hits the open road from Western Australia with the 8 days Easy Breezy Western Australia Campervan Convoy with UFM100.3 DJ Limei, departing on June 3. Budding adventurers hoping to get the real life experience of a home on wheels can step foot into Singapore's first campervan showcase, modelled closely after a 6-berth campervan at Chan Brothers Suntec Wanderlust Fair, Friday to Sunday, 17 to 19 February at Suntec Singapore Level 3 Concourse. The campervan showcase features the trimmings of an actual campervan right down to the fold out bedding so one can see, touch and feel the quaint comfort of a campervan holiday.

One of the best features of this mode of adventure travel is the flexibility — stop at any sights that catch your interest without worrying about check-in times at hotels. To get up close and personal with nature, all you have to do is step out of your campervan and into the rainforest, ocean, outback or wherever it is you decide to call home that day. Pull up at the most scenic viewpoint and set up your very own “one-Michelin-starred” restaurant for your lunch or dinner. For a peace of mind, Campervan Convoys are fully escorted with a guide from Singapore throughout the entire journey to provide help where needed. Drivers can travel at a comfortable pace and meet at pre-set destinations along the way to share personal stories and adventures.

Amenities

Supplied in the campervan are linen and bedding, kitchen essentials, including crockery, cutlery and cooking utensils plus all the general living gear you will need. Enjoy the familiar comforts of an indoor bed, save costs and add personal flavours as you prepare and cook your own daily meals. With your modern-day conveniences all in one place, holidaying at your own pace has never been easier.

Choosing the right campervan

Plan your ultimate road trip and travel in style in a campervan that suits your needs. Set up for an unforgettable adventure, the Britz Voyager Campervan is great for small families on a budget. Based on the Toyota HiAce Super Long Wheelbase, it features automatic transmission and sleeps four people in two double beds. For couples looking for extra space, the Britz Explorer Campervan is a popular choice that offers a handy internal walk-through access, full bathroom facilities, reverse cycle air-conditioning and two large double beds. Like the Explorer, the Britz Frontier Campervan comes equipped with luxuries such as a DVD player with a flat screen but what sets it apart is its ability to sleep up to six people, making it the perfect family vehicle.

Trailblazing Western Australia

With little traffic to speak of, campervans have become a popular way of seeing Western Australia. Traverse with your home on wheels and take your time discovering all kinds of hidden gems and delightful Australian experiences, all bound to inspire and awe.

Beach lovers can bask in the glow of Perth City, Australia's sunniest capital, as you surf and snorkel to your heart's content. To wind down, kick back those sandals and watch an Indian Ocean sunset at Cottesloe Beach, one of Western Australia's most iconic beaches. Stretching from the white sands and blue waters of the coast to the rugged terrain of the Darling Scarp is Mandurah, where you can experience a wide range of activities from exploring vast waterways and national parks to visiting wineries and bush walking along trails through the Jarrah Forest. Next, buckle up for a sensational South Coast adventure and take in the breathtaking beauty of Albany's rugged coastline, swim with wild bottlenose dolphins in Bunbury's Dolphin Discovery Centre and explore the seaside city of Busselton.

While on a Campervan Convoy, there are infinite ways to make the most of your four-wheel drive — ride the waves at Wave Rock and marvel at other interesting rock formations such as Hippo's Yawn and indigenous rock art at Mulka's Cave or indulge in succulent gourmet yabbies also known as mini lobster at award-winning Cambinata Yabbie — a home on the road gives you the freedom to take each day as it comes, roaming the country and finding beautiful and remote places to park and picnic.

Get $200 off each campervan when you book the 8D Easy Breezy Western Australia Campervan Convoy with UFM100.3 DJ Limei, departing on June 3 at Chan Brothers Suntec Wanderlust Fair, Friday to Sunday, 17 to 19 February at Suntec Singapore Level 3 Concourse.
