Chan Brothers Travel Introduces Inaugural South Australian Houseboat Convoy, Your Home at Sea

Here to revolutionise your holidays for good, Chan Brothers Travel has introduced Houseboat Convoys to its repertoire of Free & Easy+ holidays, and is possibly the first travel agency in Singapore to do so. Experience a refreshing and indulgent style of touring South Australia as you cruise along the longest river, Murray River, on a houseboat and enjoy panoramic views in both comfort and style.

One of the best features of this mode of travel is the flexibility — park your houseboat and explore little towns along the way or sip wine, share stories and have meaningful conversations with the beautiful Murray River serving as your backdrop, all without worrying about check-in times at hotels. Relax and soak in your private spa on board, watch the amazing golden cliffs during sunset and revel in the quiet moments stargazing and sleeping beneath the Milky Way. Best of all, these luxury houseboats offer all your creature comforts and more, including facilities such as king and queen-size beds, spacious dining areas with fully-equipped gourmet kitchens, and even heated jacuzzis. All you have to do is sit back, relax and enjoy the great outdoors from the upper sundeck of your houseboat.

With a configuration of up to 6 bedrooms, a houseboat holiday is perfectly suited for multi-generational travel. Chan Brothers Travel's inaugural Houseboat Convoy kicks off with the 7 days South Australia Unforgettable Houseboat Experience with Mediacorp Artiste Elvin Ng, departing on February 8. It not only includes 2 nights in Adelaide, but also a memorable 4-day experience on a private houseboat as you steer along Murray River and explore at your own pace. Choose to commandeer your own houseboat or have a boat captain take over the wheel for a peace of mind. Imagine the breathtaking sunsets you get to share together with loved ones and all that undisturbed bonding time. One word — unforgettable.

Your Home Away From Home

Supplied in the houseboat are linen and bedding, kitchen essentials, including crockery, cutlery and cooking utensils plus all the general living gear you will need. With a fully-equipped kitchen and vital tools of the trade at your disposal, there is no reason to compromise on your creativity — whip up whatever you want, whenever and wherever you want it. Then, sink into the comfy duvets and deep sleep from the moment your head hits the pillow, awakening refreshed and ready for a new day filled with endless possibilities. With your modern-day conveniences all in one place, holidaying at your own pace has never been easier.

A Picturesque Escape from City Life

Travel in your home at sea and take your time discovering all kinds of delightful South Australian experiences, all bound to inspire and awe. Bond over sporting activities at Bowhill, made up of a collection of riverside shacks and houses and a great spot for water skiing, or choose to spend time relaxing in the surrounds.

To make the most of your houseboat holiday, take a day trip to Barossa and Adelaide Hills and indulge in exclusive food and wine experiences. Drive through scenic Barossa Valley, visit three to four wineries throughout the day and sample some of the best wines Barossa has to offer. When you make your way to Hahndorf in Adelaide Hills, you will witness Australia's oldest surviving German settlement. Home to the Mt Lofty Ranges, rolling vineyards and rich farmland, Adelaide Hills is not only rich in history and culture but also boasts stunning views. Be sure to marvel at the striking traditional architecture in a half-day sightseeing tour, sample the fresh local produce and purchase handmade arts and crafts.

Exploring Adelaide, Australia's Cosmopolitan Coastal Capital

There is much to see and do as you spend the day at leisure in Adelaide city. Soak in Adelaide's colonial elegance in the spacious green parklands or head for the shops at Rundle Mall, the heart of retail in South Australia, bringing the freshest fashion, beauty, lifestyle and food into the city. Explore the museums and libraries of North Terrace as well as the bustling Adelaide Central Market, then stop for lunch along Rundle Street East, which has some of Adelaide's best known cafes, restaurants and wine bars. A short tram ride from Adelaide is the charming seaside town of Glenelg, where you can swim with dolphins, go snorkelling or simply wind down as you take a relaxing stroll along the beach.
